Ken,

Is 41 Pitney on you 'watch' list?

Thank you.

Jeff Purpuro, 41 Pitney Ln. was sold in February of 2016. It's a 5 bed room 2.5 bath. There are 2 vehicles parked in the driveway all week. Friday nights before sun down the driveway fills with 16 to 20 cars. The cars are there till the following days sunset. Now I don't think we need to be members of Mensa to see what is going on here. There has been an influx of foot traffic by members of the Jewish community to the residence also during this time. I know this because Pitney Lane is were I hang my hat at the end of the day, the place I call home. I'm bringing this to your attention because being zoned as a residency not a religious dwelling I'm sure the occupancy limit is being exceeded every weekend. I'm not writing this out of prejudice as I'm not a prejudice person. I'm writing it out of concern. Concern for those in that over crowded house. Concern for the person walking in the road instead of the side walk dressed in all black in the dark. Concern that our quiet street and community is being played and used for religious reasons. If there is someone other than yourself I should notify or contact please let me know. Joe
